

A2 Record Gothic

A2 Record Gothic is a revival of Ludlow's Record Gothic typeface designed in the 1920s and updated in the 50s. This is our attempt to unify and systemise the disparate font styles; bold, wide, condensed, and extra condensed – that were added to the family over the years by the Ludlow Typograph Company.

These days, we expect informational content to be set in sans-serif type. Of course, considering the 500-year history of typography, this is a relatively new paradigm, but it's now so ingrained in the minds of Western readers it's as if it was always so. Those seeking familiarity and neutrality often reach for the neo-grotesque (e.g. Helvetica) and humanist (e.g. Frutiger) genres, but it is the American gothic of the early 20th century that is perhaps the most utilitarian and least pretentious of the sans classification.

As of 1930, in many parts of the Latin-writing world, the sans serif had begun to establish itself as a common type style. No longer a "grotesque" oddity reserved for posters and other display uses, the sans was now considered a clear and readable workhorse, capable of replacing serif type entirely. This was especially true in North America, where Morris Fuller Benton had devised a wide range of workman-like sans serifs for the American Type Foundry. By the mid-1950s, ATF's gothics had coalesced as Alternate, Franklin, and News Gothic, multipurpose families with a size, weight, and width for nearly any purpose. And, indeed, they were used for almost everything. Pick up any magazine, newspaper, book jacket, record cover, or all manner of corporate collateral and it was likely to include gothic type.

Much earlier, however, came Ludlow Typograph's Record Gothic, first released circa 1927 in small sizes (6-12pt). Type historian Mac McGrew speculates that its name comes from its initial purpose: small headings on ruled record sheets. Over the next three decades, additional styles were added by many different hands, serving more diverse purposes, with each new iteration adapting to the fashions of its time — the Bold and Heavy Condensed can be compared to Akzidenz-Grotesk and Folio, the Medium-Extended is akin to Helvetica. As a result, Ludlow's unusual hybrid family is a rather charming anomaly, one that has gone unnoticed among contemporary graphic designers because it hasn't been properly revived — until now.

A2-TYPE's interpretation, A2 Record Gothic, focuses on the pared-down initial cut, with its clear forms and economical stature. We expanded it to seven weights, Thin to Black, and gave them character sets sufficient for modern use, including text figures, fractions, arrows, and extended Latin support. Each weight has a corresponding italic with an unusually steep angle, echoing Ludlow's original matrices and producing a striking effect when used for emphasis or display purposes. Each weight is also available in two additional widths, Condensed and X Condensed.

When thinking of who to invite to contribute to this issue, we quickly drafted a list of practitioners that are challenging the borders of their discipline with expertise and intelligence. Collectively, their works are precise tools for dissecting contemporary ecological concerns. They do so by testing the boundaries of the most underestimated human sense, smell (Sissel Tolaas); exposing the possibilities and problematics of technologies when intersecting with the organic world (Alexandra Daisy Ginsberg); adapting the tools of architecture to deconstruct the hidden infrastructure of ecological destruction (Paulo Tavares); and through philosophical reflection in order to empathise with the non-human living creatures with whom we share planet Earth (Emanuele Coccia). For us, their work is not only a form of inspiration, but also of an ethical and intellectual standard we aim to achieve with our own practice. — ANDREA TRIMARCHI AND SIMONE FARRÉSIN

Contrary to popular belief, Lorem Ipsum is not simply random text. It has roots in a piece of classical Latin literature from 45 BC, making it over 2000 years old. Richard McClintock, a Latin professor at Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia, looked up one of the more obscure Latin words, consectetur, from a Lorem Ipsum passage, and going through the cites of the word in classical literature, discovered the undoubtable source. Lorem Ipsum comes from sections 1.10.32 and 1.10.33 of “de Finibus Bonorum et Malorum” (The Extremes of Good and Evil) by Cicero, written in 45 BC. This book is a treatise on the theory of ethics, very popular during the Renaissance. The first line of Lorem Ipsum, “Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet”, comes from a line in section 1.10.32. The standard chunk of Lorem Ipsum used since the 1500s is reproduced below for those interested. Sections 1.10.32 and 1.10.33 from “de Finibus Bonorum et Malorum” by Cicero are also reproduced in their exact original form, accompanied by English versions from the 1914 translation by H. Rackham. It is a long established fact that a reader will be distracted by the readable content of a page when looking at its layout. The point of using Lorem Ipsum is that it has a more-or-less normal distribution of letters, as opposed to using ‘Content here, content here’, making it look like readable English. Many desktop publishing packages and web page editors now use Lorem Ipsum as their default model text, and a search for ‘lorem ipsum’ will uncover many web sites still in their infancy. Various versions have evolved over the years, sometimes by accident, sometimes on purpose (injected humour and the like). There are many variations of passages of Lorem Ipsum available, but the majority have suffered alteration in some form, by injected humour, or randomised words which don't look even slightly believable. If you are going to use a passage of Lorem Ipsum, you need to be sure

Lorem Ipsum comes from sections 1.10.32 and 1.10.33 of “de Finibus Bonorum et Malorum”

Contrary to popular belief, Lorem Ipsum is not simply random text. It has roots in a piece of classical Latin literature from 45 BC, making it over 2000 years old. Richard McClintock, a Latin professor at Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia, looked up one of the more obscure Latin words, consectetur, from a Lorem Ipsum passage, and going through the cites of the word in classical literature, discovered the undoubtable source. Lorem Ipsum comes from sections 1.10.32 and 1.10.33 of “de Finibus Bonorum et Malorum” (The Extremes of Good and Evil) by Cicero, written in 45 BC. This book is a treatise on the theory of ethics, very popular during the Renaissance. The first line of Lorem Ipsum, “Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet..”, comes from a line in section 1.10.32. The standard chunk of Lorem Ipsum used since the 1500s is reproduced below for those interested. Sections 1.10.32 and 1.10.33 from “de Finibus Bonorum et Malorum” by Cicero are also reproduced in their exact original form, accompanied by English versions from the 1914 translation by H. Rackham. It is a long established fact that a reader will be distracted by the readable content of a page when looking at its layout. The point of using Lorem Ipsum is that it has a more-or-less normal distribution of letters, as opposed to using ‘Content here, content here’, making it look like readable English. Many desktop publishing packages and web page editors now use Lorem Ipsum as their default model text, and a search for ‘lorem ipsum’ will uncover many web sites still in their infancy. Various versions have evolved over the years, sometimes by accident, sometimes on purpose (injected humour and the like). There are many variations of passages of Lorem Ipsum available, but the majority have suffered alteration in some form, by injected humour, or randomised words which don’t look even slightly believable. If you are going to use a passage of Lorem Ipsum, you need to be sure there isn’t anything embarrassing hidden in the middle of text. All the Lorem Ipsum generators on the Internet tend to repeat predefined chunks as necessary, making this the first true generator on the Internet. It uses a dictionary of over 200 Latin words, combined with a handful of model sentence structures, to generate Lorem Ipsum which looks reasonable. The generated Lorem Ipsum is therefore always free from repetition, injected humour, or non-characteristic words etc. Text from lipsum.com Contrary to popular belief, Lorem Ipsum is not simply random text. The End.

So many people I would love to talk with, to interview. I could do this over and over again with a different theme every time. Asking questions of people you genuinely respect can be thrilling. These are two people I genuinely respect. People who share a healthy degree of concern for the future of the world and humanity. Who never forget that ideally the work we make reverberates beyond pure sensory satisfaction to a place of questioning, of extraction and exactitude. It's hard not to feel like making movies isn't a silly waste of time, but when artists such as Katherine and Ramin stir the pond, the ripples are worth paying attention to as the sun sets on another frivolous and excruciatingly important day. They're pitching in, so to speak. And they have both challenged me to work harder, to ask more of myself, and to examine more closely, more rigorously, the world around me.

I thank them for putting up with me, and I thank you for your attention.

Equally comfortable performing Chekhov as she is working with the likes of Paul Thomas Anderson or Ridley Scott, leaving indelible stamps on independent features and Hollywood blockbusters alike, the Anglo-American actor can do it all. In an intimate conversation, Waterston reflects on climate change, the limits of language and how motherhood will forever shape future performances

A2-TYPE is an online foundry and type design consultancy founded by Scott Williams and Henrik Kubel (members of AGI, Alliance Graphique Internationale), dedicated to the craft of contemporary typeface design. Our ever-growing library now includes more than 100 unique fonts created over the past 20 years. Since launching A2-TYPE in 2010, we have collaborated with leading design companies and global clients to create bespoke typefaces for their brands. Our fonts are engineered to work seamlessly across all platforms and to perform exceptionally in print, on screen, and for broadcast. A2-TYPE has been recognised with typeface design awards from TDC in New York, Graphis, D&AD, and Tokyo Type Directors Club, which awarded us the prestigious Grand Prix for our design of the New York Times Magazine custom fonts. All fonts are available exclusively from A2-TYPE. Trial fonts are available for existing customers.

Please note: We do not sell or license our fonts through resellers.

Please get in touch if you would like to commission a custom typeface or rework one of our existing designs. We have over twenty years' experience working across all sectors.
