

Biilmann is a modern interpretation of an original alphabet drawn by the renowned Danish architect and graphic designer Gunnar Biilmann Petersen in 1932. Working directly from GBP's original drawings, held in The Danish Design Museum's archive, as source material, Biilmann has been reimaged as a contemporary digital sans serif font firmly rooted in Danish typeface tradition. In 2018, A2-TYPE was granted special permission from the Biilmann family to restore and reimagine this beautiful Danish alphabet.

This specimen is for evaluation purposes only – not for commercial publication. All fonts, including images and illustrations, are the intellectual property of A2-TYPE unless otherwise stated.

By presenting the new typeface family based on Gunnar Biilmann Petersen's 'Rønning-alphabet' from 1932 Henrik Kubel and A2-TYPE reaches back to a type deeply rooted in Danish design history. This typeface has some particular qualities, which make it viable and justify its digitization, and a further expansion into an entire 'family'. It also plays an important part in the story of Danish typographic design. The design is inspired by Biilmann's 'master', the renowned architect and designer Knud V. Engelhardt (1882–1931) – often proclaimed to be Denmark's first real professional designer – while at the same time forming the basis for his many years of work on this very typeface. \Work, which set a precedent and established a distinctive Danish typographic tradition. The history — In 1932 the Copenhagen-based paint & ink manufacturers P. Rønning & Cjerløff held a competition for a new alphabet for signage that could be reproduced by use of diverse products for manual sign production, and Gunnar Biilmann Petersen (1897–1968) happened to win both the competition's first and second prizes. The latter going to a calligraphic style Roman typeface, which made perfect sense taking into account that only a little practice was needed to write it with a pen.

The competition's first prize citation, addressing the very typeface which has been revived now as 'Biilmann', stated it to be i.e. "the most beautiful sans serif type of top legibility and easy to produce, equally suitable for writing as for painting by use of Rønning's Indian ink, and the Skiltol and Dekanol sign paints." The alphabet was undoubtedly the competition's best, but it is an open question, whether or not it was 'easy to produce', forasmuch as its design features, contrary to the calligraphic alphabet, did not follow the logic of a broad nibbed pen's stroke.

The angled terminations of the capital letters' endstrokes (K, V, X, R, A) add to the type's somewhat monumental appearance – the typeface has indeed been used for several stone inscriptions – and the 'legacy' of Engelhardt can be seen in such details as the missing cross bar of letter C, Ø's enclosed form, the arrow-shaped K, as well as the strongly marked transitions between the vertical and the diagonal strokes.

The alphabet was created only a few years after two acclaimed display typefaces of early Modernism, the Englishman Eric Gill's Gill Sans and the German Paul Renner's Futura, and shows similarly a noticeable difference in the width of the individual capital letters. But while the stringently geometric Futura had been constructed with the aid of compasses and ruler (in Paul Renner's own words: ein serifenlose Linear Antiqua), both Gill Sans and the 'Rønning-face' possess an organic character. In some later versions of Biilmann's sans serif the width of the letters became more uniform, and the angled terminations disappeared in favour of the more traditional horizontal ones, or to put it simply, with time the typeface turned rather more 'standardized' and less expressive.

Biilmann had worked within the entire field of graphic design – signage, packaging, posters, visual identity, security graphics, and a lot more – and to go with those projects he designed a number of exceptionally beautiful alphabets, besides the aforementioned mentioned sans serif types. And by the way, one can view his superb design of a number of decorative Victorian gravure-faces, when visiting "Jens Olsen's \World Clock" in The Town Hall of Copenhagen, typefaces created between 1945–1955 especially for the purpose of the clock's various functions.

In 1951, following several years of teaching at the schools of painting and architecture at the Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts, Biilmann Petersen became Denmark's very first design professor at the Academy's then newly established 'School for Industrial Arts'. Among his students were i.e. two of his successors to what eventually became the professorship of 'Industrial Graphics', the architects Claus Achton Friis and Naur Klint. There are clear traits of Biilmann's influence in the work of both of them.

If you are going to use a Lorem Ipsum generator, you need to be sure there isn't anything in the middle of text. All the Lorem Ipsum generators on the Internet tend to repeat predefined chunks as they build new text. The only true generator on the Internet is Lorem Ipsum. It generates Lorem Ipsum, rather than Latin words, combined with a handful of real words, to generate Lorem Ipsum which looks reasonable. The generated Lorem Ipsum is therefore always free from characteristic words. Lorem Ipsum is not simply random text. It is Random Text from classical Latin literature from 45 BC, to 400 AD. Lorem Ipsum passage, and going through the cites of the word in classical literature, discovered the undoubtable source. Lorem Ipsum comes from sections 1.10.32 and 1.10.33 of "de Finibus Bonorum et Malorum" (The Extremes of Good and Evil) by Cicero, written in 45 BC. This book is a treatise on the theory of ethics, very popular during the Renaissance. The first line of Lorem Ipsum, "Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet..", comes from a line in section 1.10.32. The standard chunk of Lorem Ipsum used since the 1500s is reproduced below for those interested. Sections 1.10.32 and 1.10.33 from "de Finibus Bonorum et Malorum" by Cicero are also reproduced in their exact original form, accompanied by English versions from the 1914 translation by H. Rackham. It is a long established fact that a reader will be distracted by the readable content of a page when looking at its layout. The point of using Lorem Ipsum is that it has a more-or-less normal distribution of letters, as opposed to using 'Content here, content here', making it look like readable English. Many desktop publishing packages and web page editors now use Lorem Ipsum as their default model text, and a search for 'lorem ipsum' will uncover many web sites still in their infancy. Various versions have evolved over the years, sometimes by accident, sometimes on purpose (injected humour and the like). There are many variations of passages of Lorem Ipsum available, but the majority have suffered alteration in some form, by injected humour, or randomised words which don't look even slightly believable. If you are going to use a passage of Lorem Ipsum, you need to be sure there isn't anything embarrassing hidden in the middle of text. All the Lorem Ipsum generators on the Internet tend to repeat predefined chunks as necessary, making this the first true generator on the Internet. It uses a dictionary of over 200 Latin words, combined with a handful of model sentence structures, to generate Lorem Ipsum which looks reasonable. The generated Lorem Ipsum is therefore always free from repetition, injected humour, or non-characteristic words etc. Text from lipsum.com
